

Essential Foundations workshop: Inclusive Practice: Gender, Sexuality and Relationship Diversity (GSRD)

Presenter: Dragan Zan Wright

Training for: DDHS funded sexual assault workers

Date: August 20th, 2019

From: 9.30am – 4.30pm

At: The Multicultural Hub
506 Elizabeth St

This workshop explores the wonderful world we find ourselves within, where people are (to name a few): transgendered, cis-gendered, non-binary, agendered, lesbian, gay, straight, bisexual, asexual, pansexual, kinky, polyamorous, monogamous, committed to one but sexual with many... and so much more.

Knowing that people have often been shamed, judged and discriminated against for their identity and/or lifestyle and relational choice, we will intersect this with when a person reaches out as a survivor of sexual assault.

Sexual assault can rupture the very core of one's stability and identity, particularly relating to sexuality, gender and relationship, so we will look at how to best support someone and how to provide a truly aware and inclusive practice.

Workshop Objectives

- To gain an understanding of terminology and concepts related to diverse identities and lifestyles
- To have the opportunity to self-reflect on one's own spiritual, cultural, familial and social lens, explore how these have shaped our values and beliefs, and identify how this helps or hinders inclusive practice
- To apply the knowledge and best practice guidelines of GSRD inclusivity related to work with survivors of sexual assault

*Morning tea will be provided, participants are asked to provide their own lunch.
